

May, 2011

By: Rhonda Bothwell
Library Media Specialist

Centennial Elementary Library

Bismarck Public Schools

Popular Books for 2010-2011

- Nonfiction—Ripley's Believe It or Not and Star Wars: The Complete Visual Dictionary
- Fiction—Diary of a Wimpy Kid—The Last Straw and Diary of a Wimpy Kid: Rodrick Rules.
- Easy Fiction— Ready Freddy Tooth Trouble and Mercy Watson Thinks Like a Pig.

News and Reviews of 2010-2011

Presented lessons on Information Literacy to all grades preparing for NWEA MAP Testing and ND State Standards.

Collaboration with classrooms on databases.

Research with sixth grade about their Living Museum Research Project.

Research with fifth grade on History Comes Alive, Heritage Journey Across the US and Idioms

Research with fourth grade on ND Projects.

Research with second grade on animal reports.

Partnered with Kindergarten through sixth grade on the Scott Foresman Reading Street Series.

Third grade students learned arrangement and how to locate library books independently.

Third grade became independent OPAC users.

Internet Safety with grades fourth—sixth the library.

Library and Literary terms lessons

Centennial Stats for the Year

Material Owned 11,341

New Books Added 565

Circulation 21,84

Centennial Holds 615

District Holds 344

Happens in the Library

Scholastic Book Fair was another success of a profit of $1347.58.

Throughout the year I have met with every class on a weekly bases. If there was no school, the classes were able to reschedule a 15 minute period for checkout.

Award Ag in the Classroom Grant of $500.00. Able to add 15 agricultural books to